

Participation in the Langdale Marathon

- To take part in the Langdale Marathon participants must be 18 years or over on 19th October.
- Participants take part at their own risk and must agree to the disclaimer waiving all claims against the Langdale Marathon organisers.
- The organisers use data supplied by participants to process an entry. All data (electronic and paper) is stored securely. Personal data is not supplied or distributed to any third party other than those working within the framework of the event.
- Participants agree to the organisers publishing their name, gender, age category and club affiliation (if attached) in the current list of entries upon entering and in the race results after the event.
- Participants grant permission for photographic prints, films or recordings to be taken and organisers reserve the right to use such photographs for publicity to promote future events and the Trust's charity work.
- Participants will receive a timing chip and race number at registration. The right to participate in this event is highly individual, and as such entries and race numbers are non-transferable.
- Participants agree for Brathay to contact them with race information.

Event Day – 19th October 2019

- You must confirm your entry for the marathon and collect your timing chip and number from the event registration centre on the morning of the race.
- All participants must complete their personal details, including details of any health issues and medication, on the reverse of their race number. The race number must be worn unfolded and must be visible on the front of shirts for the duration of the race.
- While running around the course runners must follow all instructions given by the event officials and marshals.

The Start and Race Timings

- Participants must begin the marathon from the official start location and be positioned behind the starting line when the race begins.
- Participants must follow instructions from the start line marshals.
- The published race results will show 2 times for each runner: their gun time and their chip time. The time taken from when participants cross the start line to when they cross the finish line (chip time) will be their official time for the course. However, prizes in each age category are allocated to the first three runners based on their gun time.
- Participants must wear their timing chip in order to receive an official time and are responsible for returning their timing chip, which will be issued at registration along with their race number. Failure to do this may incur a charge.

Safety

- Whilst Brathay Running will take steps, that are so far as is reasonably practical, to ensure the smooth & safe running of this event, you as a participant are responsible for your own safety. In addition, whilst taking part in the event you must not place other participants or any members of the public at risk as a result of your acts and/or omissions.
- The event is run according to UK Athletics rules, and as such runners wearing devices requiring headphones (excluding bone conducting headphones as per UK Athletics rules) will run the risk of disqualification. This is for safety reasons as most of the race is run on open roads.
- Unauthorised car support, bicycles, rollerblades, Nordic sticks, skateboards, baby joggers/strollers and any other wheeled devices are not permitted on the course.
- You are advised not to take part in this event if you are unwell or injured. If you retire from the event please inform the nearest race official or marshal.

Race Cancellation policy

The Brathay Running race organisers reserve the right to cancel, delay or postpone the race due to emergency or extraordinary conditions. These include adverse weather conditions, or following instructions from the emergency services. In the unlikely event that the race has to be cancelled, delayed or postponed due to circumstances outside of our control, no refunds will be payable.
